AYE, AYE! SIR!!

507 WEST STREET, NEW YORK

A MOTHER'S LETTER

"Inclosed 10 Kronor for your work. Whenever I get a letter from my son I drop a coin in the saving box---it is for the Seamen's Mission---I am so thankful to God that my son's life has been spared, thankful that God has kept him from falling into the snares of temptation that would lead him astray, bring him to forget his Saviour, his home and his friends at home. I am thankful to know that in so many ports throughout the world is a place of refuge for the toilers of the sea. If you could only realize what a comfort this thought is to a Mother heart you would know that your work in behalf of the men of the Sea is supported by many a Mother's prayer."

FACTS ABOUT NEW YORK

New York is the third largest seaport in the world; it has 350,000 seamen going out and coming in every year. They come and go with the regularity of the tides. In our neighborhood, between Christopher Street and 23rd Street, we have 5,000 seamen of all ages, grades, nationality and character. In the midst of the temptations of the waterfront the American Seamen's Friend Society's Institute is set to prevent men from falling, protect them from their enemies, provide clean recreation, and give the Gospel of life. The story is told in picture as follows:

NEW YORK HARBOR

WHAT THE MEN SAY ABOUT IT!

"Please accept my deepest thanks for the kindness the AMERICAN SEAMEN'S FRIEND SOCIETY showed me when I was stranded in New York. You people are certainly all right.

"My idea of sailors' missions is completely changed after the practical religion which I have received at your place. I don't know how to thank you all, and my best wish is, that your Society will never go looking for funds to support such a splendid work. Good luck to you all and may God bless you.

"I am writing these few lines to tell you how much better I feel and to thank you all for what you did for me when I was on the rocks. I am after cutting the beer out and I will never touch a blessed drop again. You people have done me a lot of good.

"I must thank you very much for your kindness to me while I was in the hospital. My wife also is very grateful to you for keeping her posted as to my condition. It was a great comfort to her to hear news occasionally as it was an anxious time for her. I trust you are keeping well and strong yourself to enable you to comfort others who are suffering as you did me.

"It gives me the greatest pleasure to express my heartfelt thanks to you for the kindness you, have shown to one of my shipmates. It is not only him to whom you showed kindness, but to me and I cannot express myself in writing.

"Since I took the Communion Cup that Sunday night I feel myself within to be a different man."

The Work of
The American Seamen's Friend Society

Object.

To improve the social, mental, moral and religious condition of the seamen of the world.

Means of Accomplishment.

ON LAND.---By the maintenance of Seamen's Institutes, Sailors' Homes, Bethels, Churches, Reading Rooms, caring for shipwrecked and destitute seamen, and the preaching of the Gospel in the principal ports of America and foreign countries.

AT SEA.---By placing Loan Libraries, composed of carefully selected, instructive, inspiring and entertaining books on American vessels leaving the port of New York.

Each library costs $20 to the donor, contains 43 well selected books, and is returned and sent out again as long as it lasts.

THE SUPPORT

The Institute is supported by voluntary contributions, and needs $6,000 a year to make up the annual deficit.

Sustaining Membership $2.00

To complete the Institute $100,000 is needed; $25,000 has been promised.

Make checks payable to AMERICAN SEAMEN'S FRIEND SOCIETY. Send to
